

Happy Christmas! Looking forward to 2020 already!

It is hard to believe that we are coming to the end of 2019! When reviewing the content for this newsletter, I was reminded of the hard work and long hours our 'Cubists' have invested in their start-ups this year, to create these successes. Well done everyone!

Vitropics - Triumph at the National Start-Up Awards!

Welcome and congratulations to New Frontiers 15 participants Donna Ledwidge and Renée O'Shaughnessy, Co-founders of Vitropics who have moved their team into M009 on the ground floor of the Media Cube. Donna and Renée won a Gold medal at the recent National Startup Awards for their Triumph Monthly Cycle Supplement, beating 900 other start-ups for this prize.

Vitropics was listed in the top 100 Hot start-ups to watch in 2019 by The Business Post and recently featured in the Irish Independent. We wish Donna and Renée every success in their new office space and the year ahead!

It has been a great year - we are delighted with the response to our Media Cube 'Business Meetups', the engagement at our in-house Venture Capitalist seminars and our recent Media Cube networking event with the Deansgrange Village Business Group – which has generated a great atmosphere - here's to our continued collaborations for success in 2020!

Best regards

Ann Marie Phelan – Enterprise and Innovation Manager, The Media Cube, IADT.

Venture Capitalist in Residence Meetup – Sharing experiences and giving back!

Huge thanks to everyone who attended our VC in Residence event, which enabled companies to get investor ready. We had a great line up of guest speakers which included Pat Garvey (Angel Investor), Dominic Conlon, (Leman Solicitors) and Simon Hillary (Equine MediRecord). Each speaker approached the topic of investment in start-ups, bringing their own experiences 'to the table' and offered feedback and advice. The energy created between the Speakers and the Cubists was exhilarating. We hope to welcome Pat Garvey back to the Media Cube for future events in 2020. The next VC in Residence event will take place in January 2020 – we will keep you updated about our guest speakers!

Thank you to the Cube companies for emailing their suggestions for our next event!

Deansgrange Village Business Group – Strengthening our local links!

We were delighted to welcome members of the Deansgrange Village Business Group to the Media Cube in late October. The purpose of the meetup was for the local businesses to learn more about the Media Cube and IADT, the opportunities for collaborative projects and the academic programmes for both undergraduate and mature students. The event was a great success!

I would like to take this opportunity to thank Dr. Andrew Power, Registrar and the Vice President of Equality and Diversity, IADT for his presentation to the participants. Thanks also to the Cube companies who joined us and to Cllr. Mary Hanafin, Brendan O'Neill and Stephen Moore of the Deansgrange Village Business Group for their enthusiasm and commitment to working with the Media Cube and IADT.

SMART PMO – Construction Analytics Matter!

Dr. Housseem Jerbi, CEO of Smart PMO and expert in AI for Construction and Planning, with fellow panelists and the production team at Dublin South FM. You can listen to the station at 93.9FM.

It has been a busy few months for Housseem Jerbi, CEO of Smart PMO (New Frontiers 15)! During the summer, Housseem was interviewed on the 'Property Matters' programme for Dublin South FM and outlined the artificial intelligence opportunities for the construction industry. Housseem also participated as a panellist at the World Legal Summit in Dublin, which brought together global industry experts in the law and artificial intelligence to discuss the legal and societal challenges posed by AI.

More recently, Smart PMO (New Frontiers 15) was shortlisted at the Highways UK Intelligent Infrastructure challenge. The challenge was an open innovation competition for intelligent infrastructure systems that have the potential to be trialled on a UK road within the next 6-18 months. Housseem will also be speaking at the National Construction Summit in 2020 – one start-up to watch!

Equine MediRecord – conquering the UK and US markets

'Thank you' and 'Congratulations' are due to Pierce Dargan and Simon Hillary, CEO and CTO of Equine MediRecord (NF10)! Equine MediRecord have shown their commitment to 'staying in touch' and 'giving back' by participating in our recent Venture Capital meetup!

Equine MediRecord evolved to address the problem of recording medicines prescribed for horses – by introducing a web-based and phone app method to record the medicines prescribed accurately. This solution has eliminated the need for paper records.

It has been a busy year for the company. Equine MediRecord was a regional winner and national finalist at Ireland's Best Young Entrepreneur 2019 Awards and is a national finalist for Ireland's Innovator of the Year in the SFA National Business Awards 2020. The company currently employs 4 full-time and 8 part-time staff members. Well done!
